

Insurance Institute of BC Success Series Seminar

Success Series Seminars are fundamental education on key insurance principles and practices, as well as personal and professional development.

FUNDAMENTAL | PRINCIPLES | PRACTICE

Fire Investigation for the Insurance Professional Wednesday March 8th | The Grand Hotel | Nanaimo

Would you like to increase your understanding, efficiency and effectiveness when working with a fire investigator? Join us to learn the ins and outs of fire investigation from the initial examination through to legal ramifications. This seminar will build on the previously presented material but does not exclude those who did not attend those sessions.

This seminar will present current fire investigation techniques and concepts. Methods to maximize the outcome of a fire scene examination will be identified. The four classifications of fire will be explained and discussed in order to assist you when reviewing a fire investigation report. The legal aspects of a fire investigation will be explored. You will also learn what fire investigation myths and practices have been found to be scientifically unsupportable.

Seminar Objectives:

- Examine current Fire investigation techniques
- Discuss how to create the best possible outcome when working with agencies and authorities
- Explain the Guide to Fire & Explosion Investigation from NFPA
- Review the BC Fire Services Act

Seminar Presenter: Scott Melville IAAI-CFI®, CFEI, CVFI, CCFI-C, CFII

Scott is the principle fire investigator with Triple Sevens Fire Consulting Inc. He served 22 ½ years as a professional Fire Fighter working in the Saanich fire suppression and fire prevention divisions. He has been in private practice as a fire investigator since 2009.
